PARISH REGISTERS OF DUNFERMLINE, 1561-1700.

EDITED BY

REV. HENRY PATON, M.A.,

GENERAL REGISTER HOUSE.

EDINBURGH:

PRINTED FOR THE SOCIETY BY JAMES SKINNER & COMPANY.

1911.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE date given is that of baptism or marriage.

The first few pages are copied from the Register verbatim et literatim.

The ensuing entries are abridged, the form being in most cases a repetition of these specimens.

The baptisms and marriages are recorded in the Register in parallel columns—and in the transcription the marriages are placed month by month immediately after the baptisms. Where no marriages are recorded for the month, this fact is indicated.

The original spelling of surnames and place names is retained; but in the abridgement Christian names are modernised, except that some of a peculiar nature are given as they stand.

In the first few pages of the Register the record of marriages is impaired by the outer edge of the page having been cut away.

It should be kept in mind that prior to 1600 the year is reckoned from 25th March.

[END OF VOL. 1612–1652.]

Note.—At the beginning of the next volume of the Register of Births and Marriages in Dunfermline (Parish) the first page is entirely taken up with the dates of the incumbency of the various ministers and session clerks of the parish. The changes of ministry are many. Of the clerks, one Robert Anderson claims ownership of the book in these words: "Maister Robert Anderson est hujus libri possessor." But some other person, probably a successor, has scored through this claim, evidently claiming that the book was only in the keeping (in virtue of his office) but not the property of the clerk for the time being. Robert Anderson's instalment in office is recorded on the upper part of the page—"Mr. Robert Anderson, clerk, who enterit Precentor of the said kirk [small part of the page torn away here] and enterit reeder and Clerk of [Dunfermline? word obliterated] kirk ultimo Junij 1640."

There is also at the foot of the page an exceedingly interesting contemporary reference to the battle of Killiecrankie, evidently written by one who was strongly in favour of Claverhouse and the Jacobite interest. It is given here in full :—

"22 Junij 1679 Die Dom: in ye morning or armie defeated and routed the Western [ar]mie ob . . . [word uncertain].

"27 July 1689 being a Saturday the Viscount of Dundie his ar[mie] att Gillicharngie [Killiecrankie?] obtained victory of K. Wm. his forces where they were Joynd in battaile was not hu in the Highlands, notwithstanding the sd Dundie his force . . . my (?) [torn and obliterated] the number of the other to his eternall fame the ar . . . ernal was commanded by Generall Major Mkcay to his e . . ."
